LAST MINUTE offers wine drinkers a bit of cheer and spontaneity, suggested by its name. Planning is good, but flying by the seat of your pants makes life exciting.

BALTIMORE BEND VINEYARD, which takes its name from a nearby bend in the Missouri River, rests along the path of the expeditionary company of Lewis & Clark and parts of the Santa Fe Trail. This area in Northeast Lafayette County marks the southern boundary of glacier fields during the Ice Age. As the ice retreated, blowing winds deposited deep, fertile, silt loam soil that is excellent for growing grapes.
